Today, we welcome back John Andrew Bailey, cathedral organist, who served as a staff member and coach at the 2011 Amherst Early Music Festival in New London, Connecticut for the past two weeks. This is his thirteenth year on the staff of the Amherst Festival. The Festival brings over 50 professional early music performers and teachers from across the world to teach and perform.

A rich history of outreach and community service continues at Philadelphia Cathedral.
A ministry of love and service that transforms lives!

EPISCOPAL COMMUNITY SERVICES - "FILL THE BUS CAMPAIGN"

As part of the Episcopal Community Services annual "Fill the Bus Campaign", members and friends of Cathedral are asked to consider donating 20 high school age book bags filled with school supplies for students who are in need. All contributions should be received by Sunday, August 7th and made payable to ECS "Fill the Bus Campaign". The total amount needed to fill the book bags is $300.00.

If donating cash, please place your contribution in a sealed envelope with your name and the amount of your gift and place it in the offering basket. Stacey Middleton has been coordinating this outreach effort. If you have any questions or need more information on this campaign, please see her after the liturgy.

Thank you for your continued support of these vital ministries.

PENTECOST ART EXHIBITION - Please take time to view the extraordinary art exhibition which is now on display in the cathedral. The exhibition, entitled Trio, Walkway and twelve Tongues of Flame, was created by artist Anne Minich, a member of cathedral congregation, for the season of Pentecost. The installation is designed so that the eye travels around the whole of the space and is intended to compliment the splendid interior architecture of the cathedral.

Cathedral office hours through Labor Day will be Monday through Friday 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
