PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION

Commuter trains as well as inter-city trains (Amtrak) all stop at 30th Street Station.

A taxi ride from the station is about 8 blocks and costs under $5.00.

Alternatively, the Green Line streetcar lines and Blue Line Subway can be taken from 30th and Market Streets station, outside of the railway station at the corner.

On the Blue Line Subway ("The El"), ride to 40th Street. At 40th and Market walk back (east) to 38th. The Cathedral is a half-block to your right.

On the Green Line (subway-surface) streetcar ride any line to 36th Street.

At 36th, walk one (1) block to 36th and Chestnut, then left (west) 2 blocks to 38th and Chestnut. The Cathedral is a half block to your right.

The Cathedral is located near the following bus routes: 21, 30, 40, 42 and LUCY Green and Gold Loops. Parking

In order to avoid receiving a parking ticket while attending Sunday morning services, drivers should collect a parking sign from the ushers (who will be in the narthex of the Cathedral) and then display it prominently in their vehicle. The signs are provided by Philadelphia Cathedral and indicate the time frame the owner will be in the service.

There are many metered parking places around the Cathedral on Ludlow, 38th and Chestnut Streets.
